ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. SALUTE! – Salute your Khan brothers with an O/ in game and teamspeak.

2. PROGRESS! -In order to advance to the next rank, Khanscripts must:

- Attend one THUNDERDOME (Occurs every Saturday around 10am PST)
- Post 10 screenshots of kills on the forums
- Receive 4 pledges from other Khans

3. LEAD! -Rank is not a prerequisite for leadership in The Khans; instead, rank is a reward FOR leadership. Every Khan has the right and privilege to lead raids/events/patrols; and is encouraged to do so. You will quickly discover the strength of your leadership skills by seeing who's willing to follow you to the reaches of the wasteland.

4. SPEAK! Every Khan has the right and privilege to speak freely about any issue at any time; and to be heard regardless of rank or status. So speak! And speak freely without restriction. But know that silence is often the strongest voice in the room.

5. KHANVERT! The societies of the wasteland have built a "prison of rules" within your mind. Break free from these chains! Embrace a "Khan Mentality" and share it with the wasteland!

Examples:

- We don't "Murder" wastelander's, we liberate them from their misery!
- We don't "steal" property, we collect on unpaid taxes, and stop tax evaders

6. KHANS DON'T LIE! Khans live and die by their word. Avoid lying whenever possible. But freely apply Khan mentality to this principle.

Example: Yes, Jimmy paid the "road tax"; but no one told him about the "travelling with cargo tax"...

7. ALL PROPERTY IS KHAN PROPERTY! Everything in the wasteland, including it's people, belong to you and your fellow Khans; to freely do with as you see fit.

8. KHAN LAW IS THE ONLY LAW! Khans are not subject to the law of any government, person, organization, or body. The only law is Khan law! The laws of Freedom!

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

9. KHANQUER! The Khans are the future, an evolved sociopolitical entity risen from the ashes of the failed old world. There is no room in our new world for weakness, politics, and compromise; There is only room for the Rise of Khans!

Aggressively oppose any offer of alliance, friendship, amnesty, or peace, those are the sick mentalities that lead to the collapse of the old world! The weak must be destroyed!

If your enemies are worthy – Khanscript them, and liberate their minds into the cause.

10. THUNDERDOME!

We are The Khans, the last sole hope for the future of humanity, and those destined to rule the world and conquer the galaxy! To succeed we have embraced humanities greatest assets; genetic traits we are all designed with, and must employ ad maxim!

Aggression and Violence!
Belligerence and Intolerance!
Ruthlessness and resent!
Greed and Desire!
Cunning and Remorselessness!

THUNDERDOME exists as the check and balance to the employed use of these genetic weapons; Because we Khans are alone; there is no room for ongoing disputes in house; our focus must always be outward and on our enemies, fellow man, nature, or otherwise..

Therefore it is the right of every Khan to challenge another in THUNDERDOME for the resolution of any unresolved dispute.
